COVID-19 AND PORT OPERATIONS

Every sector within the goods movement industry is grappling with the myriad challenges presented by the worldwide COVID-19 outbreak. The supply chain is still learning how to adapt to canceled sailings, cargo declines, and other factors as we collectively wait for the health situation to stabilize and an eventual upsurge in cargo.

We invite you to join the Harbor Association of Industry and Commerce (HAIC) and the Port of Long Beach to get the latest updates and next steps on how our industry is dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic from Port of Long Beach Deputy Executive Director, Dr. Noel Hacegaba.
